Celebrating Syria

A festival of arts and culture

For many people, the little they know of Syria and its people comes from media coverage of the Conflict. Syria is so much more than that. Its beating heart is filled with the treasures emanating from a deep well of artistic creativity. The Celebrating Syria Festival 2018 shares some of this culture with the people of Manchester.

The theme of this year's Festival is Home. Home can be construed in many ways but a common thread running through the Festival is the cultural heritage of Syria, the country that the Syrian people call home. Memories of home shine through the performances and art.

Organised by Rethink Rebuild Society, the festival includes concerts, film screenings, workshops, talks, and discussions, together with an exhibition which will run from Saturday 6 to Wednesday 31 October and a selection of books that will be on sale throughout the Festival. For more details about the artists and for regular updates visit: www.celebratingsyria.org

DISCUSSIONS

Is home really where the heart is?

What does home mean to you? What emotional connection do you have to home? Is a citizen of the world a citizen of everywhere, anywhere or nowhere? How does our relationship with home change when we move away, whether through force or choice? Everyone is welcome to this free-flowing conversation facilitated by Dr. Mustafa Alachkar.

Tuesday 9 October, 5.30pm

HOME

Women, Art and Revolution

A thought-provoking discussion that explores how Syrian women artists have advanced the cause of the revolution and how the Revolution has shaped their creative work and given them a defiant voice not only against the regime but against all forms of oppression in a male-dominated society.

With panelists: graphic designer and curator Sana Yazigi, novelist Dima Wannous and Raya Homsi of the charity Souriyat Across Borders. Chaired by writer, film maker and activist Muzna Al-Naib.

RETHINK REBUILD SOCIETY

Rethink Rebuild Society (RR) is a Manchester-based charity that works towards improving the lives of refugees, asylum seekers, and immigrants in the UK, in particular but not exclusively Syrians, helping them become positively established within British society.

We began informally after the start of the uprising in Syria in March 2011 and since then we have grown stronger in our work to inspire, strengthen and advocate for refugees, asylum seekers, and immigrants, Syrians and otherwise, and help them become an effective part of British society.
